

An International & Transdisciplinary Conference Bridging Indigenous and Scientific Knowledge

ARCTIC WEEK 2019

UNDER THE HIGH PATRONAGE OF THE MINISTER OF EUROPE AND FOREIGN AFFAIRS

PREPARATORY SYMPOSIUM FOR THE ARCTIC WEEK 2019

ARCTIC CROSSROAD – 23-24 SEPTEMBER 2019

CHAired BY SÉGOLÈNE ROYAL, AMBASSADOR FOR THE POLES

COORDINATED BY DR. ALEXANDRA LAVRILLIER, CEARC/UVSQ

CENTRE OF CONFERENCES – 27, RUE DE LA CONVENTION, 75015 PARIS

Compulsory registration (limited places): <https://forms.gle/HKbwF4a224wG2BNb8>

MONDAY, THE 23RD OF SEPTEMBER

9:30 to 10:00 – Welcoming

10:00 to 10:15 – Introduction by Ségolène Royal

10:15 to 12:00 – First Session “Indigenous People in the context of climate change”

Rachel Issa Djesa (UiT, Norway) [Skype]: “When the Arctic and the Tropics meet: Indigenous Local Knowledge and Academia”.

Simon Maraud (Université de Limoges, France and Université Laval, Québec): “Gállók, a Sami fight in Sweden: Approaching the Arctic by its decolonizing dynamics”.

Patrick Schembri and Katia Radja (Université Versailles Saint-Quentin-en-Yvelines, France): “The Tradeoff between Climate Policies and Development Policies: A Sustainability Issue”.

Roman Courault (Sorbonne Université, France): “The Fragmentation of Reindeer Husbandry Landscapes. A case study in Swedish Lapland”.

Jean-Paul Vanderlinden and al. (Université Versailles Saint-Quentin-en-Yvelines, France): “Meaning in the face of changing climate risks: connecting agency, sensemaking, narratives of change and transdisciplinary research - comparing 3 arctic and 3 non-arctic communities”.

12:00 to 14:00 – Break

14:00 to 14:10 – Poster Presentation

Emilie Canova (GEG Nordiques, France) and Pierre Bigot (Université de Poitiers/GEG Nordiques, France): “Arctic Cartography from Renaissance”.

14:10 to 15:30 – Second Session “Arctic Ocean and Cryosphere”

Christelle Marlin (CNRS, Université Paris-Sud, France): “Impact of Climate Change upon Glacial Hydrology in High Arctic (example of the Austre Lovénbreen Catchment, Spitsbergen)”.

Juan Baztan (Université Versailles Saint-Quentin-en-Yvelines, France): “Microplastics and the Arctic”.

Jean-Paul Vanderlinden (Université Versailles Saint-Quentin-en-Yvelines, France): “Scoping the risks associated with accelerated coastal permafrost thaw: lessons from Bykovsky (Sakha Republic, Russian Federation) and Tuktoyaktuk (Northwest Territories, Canada)”.

Alexandra Lavrillier (Université Versailles Saint-Quentin-en-Yvelines, France) and Semen Gabyshev (Université Versailles Saint-Quentin-en-Yvelines, Evenki reindeer herding cooperative): “Siberian Indigenous Knowledge and Anthropology for Understanding a Changing Cryosphere”.

15:30 to 16:00 – Break

16:00 to 18:00 – Third Session “Women in the Arctic”

May-Britt Öhman (Uppsala University, Sweden): “Experiences from Sámi territories: Dálkke - Indigenous Climate Change Studies a research project led by Indigenous scholars and Sámi women reindeer herders”.

Tahnee Prior (University of Waterloo, Canada) and Gosia Smieszek (University of Lapland, Finland) [Skype]: “Advancing Gender Equality in the Arctic”.

Marie Roué (CNRS, France): “The resilience of Sami women in times of change”.

Marine Duc (Université Bordeaux Montaigne – UMR Passages, France): “‘Gendered geographies of power’ and student mobility in a postcolonial context: scales and reshaping of social location through mobility”.

Marie-Françoise Labouz (Université Versailles Saint-Quentin-en-Yvelines, France): “The Situation of Indigenous Women in the Canadian Arctic (final report of the Commission of Inquiry)”.

Béatrice Collignon (Université Bordeaux Montaigne – UMR Passages/GDR AREES, France): “Canadian Inuit women: negotiating one's place in times of spatial changes (1950-2020)”.

18:00 to 20:00 – Film Projection “Des femmes pour un pôle. La première expédition polaire féminine”, with Madeleine Griselin.

TUESDAY, THE 24TH OF SEPTEMBER

9:30 to 10:00 – Welcoming

10:00 to 12:00 – Workshop: Co-building of the Arctic Week 2019